- 7.1.10 Both, internal and external co-supervisor/external supervisor shall be appointed on approval of the concerned DRC.
- 7.1.11 No teacher shall be allowed to supervise/co-supervise his/her blood relatives.

7.2 Allocation of _research supervisor and appointment of new supervisor:

- 7.2.1 The allocation of Research Supervisor for a selected research scholar shall be decided by the concerned DRC depending on the maximum number of scholars per Research Supervisor as specified elsewhere in these regulations, the available specialization among the Supervisors and research interests of the scholars as indicated by them at the time of interview/viva voce.
- 7.2.2 Keeping the candidate's research interest in view, the concerned DRC shall assign a supervisor, co-supervisor, and external co-supervisor (mandatory, in the case of an external full-time candidate), external supervisor, to supervise the research work of the candidate; shall also notify the Research Advisory Committee constituted as per the related provision(s) of these regulations, to assist the supervisor.

7.2.3 Co-Supervisors from within the same department or other departments of the same institution or other institutions may be permitted with the approval of the competent authority on the recommendation of the concerned DRC.

7.2.4 After the allotment of supervisor/co-supervisor, the candidate shall submit an application through his/her DRC to the Dean/Head/Coordinator of the School/Department informing the proposed topic of research. An external full-time candidate is required to submit the consent of the proposed external co-supervisor/supervisor duly approved by the DRC or equivalent body of that institution along with the above application.

7.2.5 In case where the supervisor of the candidate is appointed in sister or allied departments (as specified in Appendix-II) and co-supervisor in other department of the University, provision for transfer of the candidate (only within a year from the date of registration) pursuing research under his/her supervision in the previous department shall be available provided the candidate opts for it and the DRC of the concerned department agreed to the proposed transfer. However, the research scholar, subsequent upon transfer, shall be governed by the rules of the department/faculty to which he/she is transferred.

7.2.6 If the supervisor of a candidate proceeds on leave/lien/deputation for a period of more than 12 months, she/he shall request the concerned DRC to appoint a co-supervisor for the student.

7.2.7 However, if a supervisor proceeds on a leave/lien/deputation for a period more than 12 months or for a period of less than 12 months, but later extends his/her leave/lien/deputation beyond 12 months, and there is no co-supervisor for the student, then, she/he shall cease to be the supervisor. The concern DRC will appoint a new supervisor for the student.

7.2.8 If the supervisor of a candidate expires or is terminated from the University service, she/he shall cease to be the supervisor. In such case the concerned DRC shall appoint a new supervisor.

7.2.9 In all the cases, where the existing supervisor of a candidate ceases to be the supervisor; the DRC shall appoint a new supervisor. Or, if the candidate is having a co-supervisor in other department of the University, the candidate may opt for his/her transfer to that department, and she/he may be allowed to do so, on mutual consent of both the DRCs.

7.2.10 In case of any ambiguity chairperson of the concerned DRC shall act as supervisor till the appointment of new supervisor by the DRC. Such supervision shall be treated as temporary or transitory in nature. However, if there are not enough eligible teachers in the department, or any other cogent reasons, if the Chairperson of the DRC continue his/her supervisory duties for more than a year, she/he shall suo moto be designated as supervisor of the student.

7.2.11 In case of serious complaint/allegation in writing by the research scholar against the supervisor involving sexual harassment/exploitation, such cases shall be dealt strictly as per the provision of UGC (prevention prohibition and redressal of sexual harassment of woman employees and students in HEIs) Regulations, 2015 and subsequent amendments to it. However, in such cases during the period of enquiry the concerned Head of the Department/Center/School shall act as interim supervisor. It shall be incumbent upon the University to complete such enquiry within six (06) days of the date complaint was received. In case allegation stands validated the concerned DRC shall appoint a new supervisor for the student. Otherwise, the scholar shall revert to the original supervisor. Further, necessary action should be taken against such scholar including cancellation of his/her registration.

7.2.12 In case the supervisor proceeds on lien/deputation and wishes to transfer his/her student to the new institution, it is permissible only within one year from the date of registration (first fee payment date) of the candidate.

7.2.13 In case the supervisor proceeds a transfer to other department in Starex University, Gurugram by reappointment, the scholar remain in the same department where the scholar registered. In such case, the concerned DRC shall appoint a new supervisor to the scholar and the previous supervisor remain as co-supervisor. No interdepartmental transfer of scholar shall be allowed.

- 7.4.1 (A candidate may be permitted or encouraged to do inter-disciplinary research. She/he may be permitted for admission/registration in a department/school/ faculty other than that in which she/he has obtained his/her Master's degree, depending upon the nature of his/her research problem and subject to the recommendation of the concerned DRC.
- 7.4.2 Application for research in inter-disciplinary area shall be considered on the basis of proven ability and aptitude of the candidate for such kind of work.
- 7.4.3 To serve this purpose, the University shall develop a list of such teacher with expertise in interface subject as supervisor/co-supervisor.

8. Duration of the programme

- 8.1 Ph.D. programme shall be for a minimum duration of three (03) years, including course work, and a maximum period of six (06) years from the date of admission to the Ph.D. programme.
- 8.2 A maximum of an additional two (02) years can be given through a process of re-registration; provided, however, that the total period for completion of a Ph.D. programme should not exceed eight (08) years from the date of admission in the Ph.D. programme.
- 8.3 Provided further that, female Ph.D. scholars and Persons with Disabilities

(having more than 40% disability) may be allowed an additional relaxation of two (02) years; however, the total period for completion of a Ph.D. programme in such cases should not exceed ten (10) years from the date of admission in the Ph.D. programme.

8.4 Female Ph.D. Scholars may be provided Maternity Leave/Child Care Leave for up to 240 days in the entire duration of the Ph.D. programme.

(Clause 4: UGC Ph.D. Regulations 2022)

8.5 If a candidate fails to submit the thesis at the end of the stipulated period (03 year), the concerned DRC, may grant an extension of up to three years (03), one year at a time, for the submission of the thesis, such that the total period for the submission of the thesis counted from the date of his/her admission does not exceed six (06) years. However, the University shall not provide fellowship to such scholar for the extension period beyond whatever is decided in the Academic Council of the University.

8.6 After the expiry of six (06) years period, the candidate has to re-register himself, for which the candidate shall apply giving the reasons due to which she/he could not submit the thesis. Such application shall be duly forwarded and recommended by the concerned DRC. Once re-registration has been accepted, the candidate may submit his/her thesis anytime within two (02) years.

8.7 The criteria of minimum submission period (03 years) shall not be applicable in re- registration cases.

9. Course work

9.1 The course work is a prerequisite for Ph.D. submission.

9.2 The course work shall be for a minimum period of one semester (six months). All the enrolled Ph.D. candidates (henceforth referred to as Ph.D. scholar or, Scholar) shall have to qualify the course work as per the criteria prescribed by the University.

9.3 All the scholars admitted to the Ph.D. programme shall be required to complete the prescribed course work during the initial two semesters.

9.4 In case a Ph.D. scholar fails or not appeared in the examination due to cogent reason in the course work examination, she/he shall be given one more chance to clear the examination. However, if she/he fails again his/her admission shall stand cancelled.

9.5 The credit assigned to the Ph.D. program shall be a minimum of 12 credits, including a "Research and Publication Ethics" course as notified by UGC vide D.O. No. F.1-1/2018(Journal/CARE) in 2019 and a research methodology course. The Research Advisory Committee can also recommend UGC recognized online courses as part of the credit requirements for the Ph.D. programme.

(Clause 9: UGC Ph.D. Regulations 2022).

9.6 A Ph.D. scholar must obtain a minimum of 55% marks or its equivalent grade in the UGC 10-point scale in the course work to be eligible to continue in the programme and submit his or her thesis.

(Clause 9: UGC Ph.D. Regulations 2022).

9.7 The details of the courses, course credits, passing criteria and other related matters decided by the University must be in conformity with the then applicable UGC Regulations.

9.8 All courses prescribed for Ph.D. shall be duly approved by the concerned Board of Studies/Faculty Board). Such courses may be from the same faculty/department where the scholar is enrolled or from other faculties depending upon the nature of research area

9.9 After completing the course work, the scholar shall appear in a comprehensive examination, the modality of conduct of which shall be decided by the concerned department/faculty or at the University level.

9.10 Only those scholars whose attendance are 75% or above during the course work period shall be allowed to appear in the examinations. The concerned department will verify the attendance. In case of external full-time research scholars, the Head of the concerned institutions shall provide a certified copy of attendance to the Head of the department where candidate is enrolled, who shall forward the same to the office of the Research and Innovation Cell/Controller of Examinations, Starex University, Gurugram.

9.11 All the enrolled scholars shall submit their first progress report to the Research and Innovation Cell/Ph.D. section through his/her concerned DRC.

10. Research proposal Submission and Registration of candidates for the Ph.D. period

10.1 Once a candidate deposit his/her first fee, she/he shall be deemed to be provisionally registered to the programme. The date of registration shall be the date of the submission of first admission fee.

10.2 Upon satisfactory completion of course work and obtaining the marks/grade prescribed in clause (3) of Regulation 9 above, the Ph.D. scholar shall be required to undertake research work and produce a draft dissertation/thesis.

(Clause 11: UGC Ph.D. Regulations 2022)

10.3 Within six month of successfully completing the course work, a scholar shall have to submit synopsis/research plan proposal on the proposed research work including title of the research work to the DRC in prescribed format.

10.4 The DRC shall examine the research plan proposal of the candidate including a presentation by the candidate. The DRC shall invite one external subject expert, who is not in the service of this University for evaluation of the "Research Proposal and Seminar".

10.5 The DRC shall submit a panel of at least three names of external experts (The external examiner(s) should be academics with a good record of scholarly publications in the field) for the approval of the Competent Authority. The approved name shall remain valid for one year from the date of its notification.

10.6 The DRC on its satisfaction to the research proposal shall approve the proposal and the topic of the research. If any correction/change/improvement is suggested by the DRC, the candidate shall have to incorporate the same and resubmit to the DRC, with an assurance from the supervisor that changes have been incorporated.

10.7 If the DRC is not satisfied with the quality of the research proposal, the candidate shall submit a fresh proposal and deliver the seminar within a time limit specified by the DRC (not exceeding one month in any case), and a fresh evaluation shall be done. But, if only the seminar is unsatisfactory, the candidate shall deliver only the seminar again within one month.

10.8 If a candidate fails to submit the research proposal within the time specified above his/her candidature shall stand cancelled. After the conclusion of Research Proposal Seminar the scholar has to submit a synopsis on the approved topic through the DRC.

10.9 The DRC shall forward its recommendation on the Research Proposal/ synopsis to the Research and Innovation Cell/Ph.D. section. The Research and Innovation Cell issue the notification of approval.

10.10 The notification of approval must be communicated by the office of the Research and Innovation Cell of the University to the concerned Department, supervisor and the scholar within a month of the date of receipt of the DRC minutes/recommendations (Research Proposal approval minutes).

11. Attendance Requirements

11.1 A Ph.D. scholar is required to sign on all working days of the University in an attendance register to be kept in the office of the concerned Head of the Department/Coordinator of the School, except when she/he is on duty/sanctioned leave approved by the DRC and/or the RDCU.

11.2 The attendance requirements and leave rules shall be applicable to the external full-time research scholars and she/he shall submit a statement on requisite attendance from the center where she/he is pursuing his/her research through his/her co-supervisor (except in case of Course Work), to the concerned Head of the Department.

12. Residency Period

12.1 A full time Ph.D. Scholar shall be required to be compulsorily present in the University for a period of three years, which is known as the Residency Period (i.e., the duration she/he cannot take any regular paid assignment), in a single stretch except in case of maternity/childcare leaves.

12.2 For internal full-time research scholar described in clauses 6.4.2. and part-time Ph.D. scholars described in the clause 6.4.4. & 6.4.5., the residency period shall be the minimum period required for completing the course work (i.e., six month).

13. Leave Rules

13.1 A Ph.D. scholar shall be eligible to avail a leave of 30 days in a calendar year. She/he shall not be entitled for any inter-semester breaks, winter and summer vacations. However, she/he is entitled for an additional leave of up to 10 days on medical grounds in a calendar year. The aforesaid leave provisions are cumulative.

13.2 Male/female scholars shall be eligible for paternity/maternity/childcare leaves as per University/UGC rules once during their entire tenure as research scholar.

13.3 The leave mentioned in the clause 13.1. shall be granted by the Head of the Department/Coordinator of the School on the recommendation of the supervisor/co-supervisor. However, the maternity and child care leaves mentioned in the clause 13.2 shall be approved the RDCU on the recommendation of the concerned DRC.

14 Duty or study leaves

14.1 If a Ph.D. scholar is willing to proceed for data collection/field trip for or less than two (02) weeks period, she/he may do so on the recommendation of the concerned DRC, duly intimated to the concerned Dean/Head/Coordinator of the School/Department.

14.2 The DRC may recommend a Ph.D. scholar to pursue a part of his/her research work at a place outside the University (including abroad), for a period of 60 days. However, if such recommendations are for a period beyond 60 days, the recommendations of the DRC would be placed before the RDCU, which may permit a Ph.D. scholar to pursue a part of his/her research work at a place outside the University (including abroad) without exceeding the maximum time limit for the submission of the thesis laid down in these regulations.

15. Financial assistance

15.1 Subject to the availability of funds from the UGC or its successor/other funding agencies, the Ph.D. scholars admitted as full time scholar would be entitled to the scholarship/fellowship (including contingency grant) of such amount as prescribed by the funding agencies (e.g., The University Research Fellowship that is being provided by the UGC, New Delhi) from time to time. The award of scholarship/fellowship shall be subject to the fulfillment of the conditions governing such award.

15.2 The maximum duration of the UGC-University Research Fellowship is of three years, subject to satisfactory research performance of the scholar, on semester basis, and submission of a semester-wise continuation certificate from the supervisor.

One additional year of the above fellowship may be granted to the enrolled scholars subject to the production of extension letter from the concerned DRC and availability of funds from the UGC. In case of candidate having their own fellowship from different funding agencies, the terms and conditions of the funding agency shall be applicable on such scholars.

16. Pre-submission of Thesis

16.1 Prior to the submission of the thesis, the scholar has to submit at least six half-yearly progress reports to the office of the Research and Innovation Cell/Ph.D. Section.

16.2 The respective DRC shall monitor the academic/research progress of each scholar. For this purpose, the candidate shall submit a progress report on a prescribed proforma in triplicate, at the end of each semester to the DRC through his/her supervisor and co-supervisor, if any.

16.3 The scholar shall also present the progress of his/her research work through a seminar to the DRC, who shall evaluate the progress made by the candidate and submit its recommendations to the Research and Innovation Cell/Ph.D. Section.

16.4 The Chairperson of the DRC shall forward the progress report with specific recommendations to the Research and Innovation Cell/Ph.D. Section through the Dean of the faculty.

16.5 Progress of a scholar in any semester shall be deemed to be unsatisfactory if the she/he is absent for a period more than that specified in these regulations.

16.6 The Ph.D. scholar shall submit progress reports for each semester till the submission of the thesis. The last progress report of the scholar shall be submitted to Research and Innovation Cell/ Ph.D. Section, in the manner prescribed above, three days prior to of the submission of thesis.

16.7 Before submitting the dissertation/thesis, the Ph.D. scholar shall make a presentation before the DRC of the department concerned, which shall also be open to all faculty members and other research scholars/students. (Clause 11: UGC Ph.D. Regulations 2022). The supervisor shall organize a pre-submission seminar (not before the minimum required period for submission of the thesis i.e., 03 years), in consultation with the Head of the Department/Coordinator of the School, to apprise the teachers and other researchers of the Department/School of the scholar's work and receive suggestions for improvement of the research work. The DRC shall assess the work of the candidate through this seminar. The seminar will be held in the department/school/Research and Innovation Cell/ Ph.D. section and shall be open for all. The suggestion so emerged may suitably be incorporated into the draft thesis.

16.8 If the DRC are not satisfied with the quality of the work of the scholar, then she/he shall do further work and deliver a fresh seminar after a definite period specified by the DRC.

16.9 If the DRC is satisfied with the pre-submission seminar of the scholar, the Chairperson of the DRC shall forward the application of the scholar for submission of the thesis along with a certificate about the satisfactory completion of the pre- submission seminar and the exact title of the thesis to the Research and Innovation Cell/Controller of Examinations with a copy of the same to the Dean of the faculty. Any extended residency period left beyond the date on which the thesis is forwarded for submission shall be deemed to have been terminated on the said date.

16.10 The exact title of the thesis shall be as approved by the DRC after the pre-submission seminar.

16.11 Ph.D. Scholars must publish at least one (01) research paper in referred journal and make two (02) paper presentation/ publication in conferences/seminars before submission of the dissertation/thesis for adjudication, and produce evidence for the same in the form of presentation certificate and/or reprint.

17. Change in the Research Topic

17.1 No major change in research topic shall be accepted after registration (at the time of synopsis submission). However, if candidate and his/her supervisor are of the opinion that minor changes are necessary, they may report the case in the concerned DRC, upon approval, this should be notified to the office of Research and Innovation Cell/Ph.D. Such changes are to be permitted for only once, before or after the pre-submission seminar by the scholar.

18. Language of the thesis

18.1 The language of the thesis shall either be in English or Hindi, except for the thesis submitted in the area of languages.

18.2 In case language of the thesis is other than English, the scholar has to submit one page summary of the work in English.

19. Unfair means and plagiarism

19.1 In case a Ph.D. scholar is found adopting or suspected of adopting unfair means or lifting of other's work and inserting it in his/her work without proper acknowledgement, credit and reference. The university may take such penal action as may be necessary to uphold the sanctity and the integrity of the research work and the credibility of the university.

19.2 The thesis must comply with the UGC (Promotion of Academic Integrity and Prevention of Plagiarism in Higher Educational Institutions) Regulations, 2018.

19.3 The University may take suo-moto cognizance of all such unethical practices/cases. Such cases may also be reported by any person to the University through the Head of the Department/Coordinator of the School/Dean of the faculty.

19.4 For works involving animals, transgenic alien seeds, explants and hazards materials must comply with guidelines of animal ethics and bio-safety recommendations issued from time to time by the UGC and other concerned agencies.

19.5 The University shall have a mechanism using well-developed software applications to detect Plagiarism in research work and the research integrity shall be an integral part of all the research activities leading to the award of a Ph.D. degree (as envisioned in the UGC (Promotion of Academic Integrity and Prevention of Plagiarism in Higher Educational Institutions) Regulations, 2018). (Clause 11: UGC Ph.D. Regulations 2022)

19.6 A Ph.D. scholar shall submit the thesis for evaluation, along with (a) an undertaking from the Ph.D. scholar that there is no plagiarism and (b) a certificate from the Research Supervisor attesting to the originality of the thesis and that the thesis has not been submitted for the award of any other degree/diploma to any other Higher Educational Institution. (Clause 11: UGC Ph.D. Regulations 2022)

20. Submission of Thesis

20.1 The scholar is required to submit the thesis within six months from the date of his/her pre-submission seminar (without exceeding the maximum time limit for the submission of the thesis as laid down elsewhere in these regulations), failing which he/she shall be required to deliver a fresh pre-submission seminar.

20.2 Prior to submission of the thesis the candidate has to submit six (06) copies of the summary/abstract of the thesis, duly forwarded by Head of the concerned Department/Coordinator of the School, describing the salient features of his/her work, to the office of Research and Innovation Cell/ Ph.D. section/ Controller of Examinations.

20.3 The scholar is required to submit four (04) soft copy of the thesis on CD/Pen Drive in non-editable/Secure PDF format along with the hard copies of the same.

20.4 The scholar shall submit four (04) hardbound printed copies of the thesis to the office of the Research and Innovation Cell/Controller of Examinations, duly forwarded by the Head of the Department/Coordinator of the School/Center. The thesis shall contain the certificate by the supervisor(s) in prescribed proforma, a declaration by the candidate in prescribed proforma, a course work completion certificate, pre-submission seminar completion certificate, and a copyright transfer certificate in prescribed proforma, anti-plagiarism certificate statement and other necessary certificates, as required from time to time.

20.5 The model for cover and title page of the thesis has been appended as Appendix-XIV and Annexure II to these regulations and shall be strictly followed.

20.6 The thesis must be a piece of original research work characterized by the discovery of facts or by fresh approach towards the interpretation of facts or theories on an applied work of great significance. In either case it shall evince the capacity of the scholar for critical examinations and independent judgment, and should also be satisfactory as far as literary presentation is concerned.

20.7 A thesis once submitted cannot be re-submitted except when the examiner recommends for the revision of the thesis.

21. Evaluation and Assessment procedure:

21.1 The supervisor through concerned DRC shall submit a panel of six (06) external experts in the concerned subject representing different parts of the country, of which, not more than two (02) should be from the single state, but not more than one from a single university, in prescribed format to the office of the Research and Innovation Cell/Ph.D. Wherever possible, one of the external examiners should be chosen from the outside India. The external examiner(s) should be academics with a good record of scholarly publications in the field. The Vice-Chancellor may however ask for more names of experts. (Clause 11: UGC Ph.D. Regulations 2022)

21.2 The Research supervisor/co-supervisor has to ensure that suggested examiners must not be in blood relation with the Ph.D. scholars as well as Research Supervisor.

21.3 The examiner panel must not contain any name from the institution of scholar's supervisor and co-supervisor.

21.4 In the case of a research scholar who has done any part of his/her work in another institution, the panel of examiners shall not include any person working in that institution.

21.5 In case the subject of research area is such that adequate numbers of experts are not available within the country; the panel may contain names of experts from foreign countries.

21.6 The concerned supervisor shall act as internal examiner.

21.7 The Vice-Chancellor would then select and appoint two (02) names from the panel as external examiners. The names shall be communicated to the office of the Research and Innovation Cell/ Ph.D. Section.

21.8 The Research and Innovation Cell/ Ph.D. Section shall get in touch with each examiner with a copy of the summary/abstract to secure acceptance of the examinership. For this purpose, if e- mail address of the examiner is available, she/he shall be contacted through e-mail to get his/her consent at the earliest. If however, no information is received from an examiner within two-week period from first communication to the examiner. After this a reminder will be given to examiner, if no response is received within two-weeks from the date of reminder, his/her appointment shall be cancelled and the Vice-Chancellor shall appoint a new examiner from the existing panel of examiners.

21.9 The Ph.D. thesis submitted by a research scholar shall be evaluated by his/her Research Supervisor (internal examiner) and at least two external examiners (selected by the Vice-Chancellor), who are not in employment of the University. (Clause 11: UGC Ph.D. Regulations 2022)

21.10 Examiners shall have to send their reports in specified proforma.

21.11 The viva-voce of the Ph.D. scholar to defend the thesis shall be conducted if both the external examiners recommend acceptance of the thesis after incorporating any corrections suggested by them. If one of the external examiners recommends rejection, the University shall send the thesis to an alternate external examiner from the approved panel of examiners, and the viva-voce examination shall be held only if the alternate examiner recommends acceptance of the thesis. If the alternate examiner does not recommend acceptance of the thesis, the thesis shall be rejected, and the Ph.D. scholar shall be declared ineligible for the award of a Ph.D. (Clause 11: UGC Ph.D. Regulations 2022).

21.12 In case one examiner accepts and another suggests for major revision, concerned DRC shall inform student and his supervisor to incorporate necessary changes to the satisfaction of DRC. If the external examiner has requested to resend the thesis to him after revisions, the same shall be forwarded to the examiner.

21.13 The University shall complete the entire process of evaluating a Ph. D. thesis, including the declaration of the viva-voce result, within a period of three (3) months from the date of submission of the thesis. (Clause 11: UGC Ph.D. Regulations 2022).

21.14 The viva-voce examination, based among other things, on the critiques given in the evaluation report, shall be conducted by the viva voce board. The viva-voce board shall consist of the Research Supervisor and at least one of the two external examiners and may be conducted online. The viva-voce shall be open to the members of the Research Advisory Committee/ concerned Head of the department/Coordinator of the School/Centers/ faculty members/research scholars, students and other interested experts/researchers. (Clause 11: UGC Ph.D. Regulations 2022)

22. Award of the Degree

22.1 In general, the Ph.D. degree shall be awarded in the subject/department where the candidate is enrolled on the topic chosen and approved by the DRC.

22.2 The date submission of the thesis shall be the date of submission of the thesis to the University. However, in case of revision the date of submission shall be the date of submission of revised thesis.

22.3 The date of award of degree shall be the date of approval by the chairperson of RDCU.

22.4 Once submitted, the office of the Controller of Examinations shall issue a submission certificate to the scholar.

22.5 The University shall complete the entire process of evaluating a Ph.D. thesis, including the declaration of viva-voce result, within a period of six months from the date of submission of the thesis.

23. Issuing a Provisional certificate

23.1 The actual degree shall be awarded in convocation convened by the University from time to time or as per the provision of ordinance of the University.

23.2 Prior to the actual award of the degree, the University shall issue a provisional certificate to this effect to the scholar that the Ph.D. is being awarded in accordance with the provisions of Starex University, Gurugram Ph.D. Regulations 2016/2022. (Clause 15: UGC Ph.D. Regulations 2022).

24. Cancellation of Registration

The registration of a Ph.D. scholar shall be cancelled by the DRC in any one of the following eventualities:

24.1 If a scholar fails to submit satisfactory progress report through supervisor regularly for two years (i.e., four half-yearly progress report).

24.2 If a scholar is absent for a continuous period of four weeks without prior information/sanction of leave.

24.3 If a scholar fails to submit synopsis within stipulated time.

24.4 If a scholar fails to renew his/her registration in any semester subject to the provisions contained in these regulations.

24.5 If a scholar fails to submit the thesis within the maximum stipulated time as provided in these regulations.

24.6 If a scholar resigns from the Ph.D. programme and the resignation is duly recommended by his/her research supervisor.

24.7 If a scholar is found involved in an act of misconduct and/or indiscipline and the Competent Authority has recommended his/her termination.

24.8 If a scholar fails to deposit the fee within the prescribed time.

25. Temporary withdrawal from the programme (De-registration and Re-registration)

25.1 A scholar admitted to the Ph.D. programme may be permitted by the RDCU, on recommendation of the DRC to temporarily withdraw from the programme on some specific reasons (termed as 'de-registration'), and later allowed to join back to complete the research (termed as 're-registration') and submit the thesis, without exceeding the maximum prescribed time limit for the thesis submission as described elsewhere in these regulations. This withdrawal may be granted for whole or part of the semesters. The relaxation shall be provided only once in entire tenure of Ph.D. research. The temporary withdrawal may be permitted on any one of the following reasons:

25.1.1 If the candidate gets a professional employment, and has completed the residency period.

25.1.2 If a fulltime sponsored candidate after fulfilling the minimum residency period requirement for the submission of the thesis joins back his/her parent organization.

25.2 Except in case of maternity leave, the above relaxation shall only be availed after completion of the minimum residency period.

25.3 During the period of withdrawal the candidate has to pay fee, and submit progress reports timely.

26. Depository with INFLIBNET

Following the successful completion of the evaluation process and before the announcement of the award of the Ph.D. degree, the University shall submit an electronic copy of the Ph.D. thesis to the INFLIBNET, for hosting the same so as to make it accessible to all Institutions.
