Sub.: Extension of approval to School of Law, Starex University, Gurgaon, Haryana for existing two sections of five BA LL.B (H) and five year BBA LL.B (H) courses and fresh approval of affiliation is accorded for two sections with intake of 60 students for three year LLB course for the academic session 2020-21.

Sir,

This is to bring to your kind knowledge that the Standing Committee of Legal Education Committee of Bar Council of India by virtue of its meeting held on 10th and 11th April, 2022 considered the matter of School of Law, Starex University, Gurgaon, Haryana.

School of Law, Starex University, Gurugram, Haryana has approval for two sections each of five year BA LLB (Hons) and five year BBA LLB (Hons) with intake of 60 students in each section up to the academic session 2020-21. Thereafter, CLE was inspected for extension of approval for the existing courses as well as for fresh approval for three year LLB course with intake of Two Sections.

While dealing with the matter, the Standing Committee at its meeting held on 30/31/10.2021 observed inter-alia that the existing strength does not justify the extension of approval for certain sections. It was further made clear that it is for the CLE to take decision in its behalf, either to can surrender one or two sections of Five-year B.A.L.L.B. or B.B.A.L.L.B. course and in return, get approval for three year L.L.B. course with one section. In view of this observation, the Registrar addressed a letter dated 20.12.2021 offering to surrender one section of 5-year BBA LLB(H) course and proposing to start one section of three year LLB course. The request is acceded to and approval for one section of five year BBA LLB (H) course is withdrawn and the approval of affiliation is accorded for one section of three year LL.Bcourse.

This is for your information and necessary action

Yours sincerely,
